Privacy Notice

In order to comply with the U.S. Securities and Exchange Commission's Regulation S-P, Global Venture Management, ("GVM" or "the Adviser") is providing this Privacy Notice. This Privacy Notice sets forth the Adviser's policies with respect to nonpublic personal information of investors, Members and former investors.

The Adviser collects nonpublic personal information about investors from the Subscription Agreements or other forms filled out by the investor. Nonpublic personal information may also be gathered verbally or from an investor's transactions with the Adviser and its affiliates. This information consists primarily of names, addresses, telephone numbers, net worth in general and instructions to wire funds.

The Adviser does not disclose any nonpublic personal information about our Members or former Members to anyone other than to the Adviser's affiliates or to our professional service providers, such as the Manager, Placement Agent or as otherwise required by applicable law, regulation or court order.

The Adviser restricts access to nonpublic personal information to those who need to know the information to enable the Adviser to provide services to each Member, including executing transactions which a Member has directly or indirectly requested through their participation in their investment. The Adviser maintains physical, electronic and procedural safeguards to guard each Member's nonpublic personal information.
